

ROGERS & THOMPSON,

Monroe City, Mo.

Our June Sale will include for the week commencing

Friday, June 19th,

the following departments:

Boys' Knee Pant Suits,

Lace Curtains,

Ladies' Underskirts,

Ribbons,

Ladies' Shirt Waists,

Embroideries,

Silkoline,

White and Colored Curtain Swisses

We will offer some genuine bargains in each of the above lines. Come in and see them. It will save you money.

Specialists should make a study of indigestion of education. More men suffer from it than any one would dream of. —Quincy Herald.

A man is never really broke until he breaks his word. There's nothing coming to him then, and he's due for the scrap heap. —Kinsey.

The School Board failed to meet Tuesday but expects to meet this afternoon and decide as to whom the Superintendent of schools is to be.

Mrs. John Cleary and Master John went to Hannibal yesterday to visit Mrs. Cleary's sister, Mrs. W. J. Krause. They were accompanied by their guest, Mrs. J. Conery, of New Castle, Neb.

J. M. Greeves left Tuesday for LaGrange to take the summer term at the LaGrange College.

Mrs. J. D. Elliott and son, Ollie, of Quincy, came over Monday to visit relatives.

Mrs. John Faby, of Shell, was the guest of her parents, R. H. Hagar and wife, the first of the week.

Have you been to the Gem yet?

C. F. Telford, of Galesburg, arrived yesterday to visit his friend D. K. Yowell.

J. D. Crigler after a pleasant visit with his relatives and many friends here, departed Tuesday for his home in Denver. We are always glad to see Jeff.

FOR SALE—5 acres of land just outside of the city limits, 6 room frame house, cellar, good new barn and out buildings, orchard, plenty of water, will take $2000.00 if sold in short time —NODE GREEN. 6-25

E. Hunter Anderson has accepted a lucrative position at East Side, Ore., and expects to leave to-night or to-morrow to assume his duties.

Bryan and Cowherd! That's a combination that offers a mighty cheerless prospect to the hungry board of republican office seekers in Missouri. —Columbia Statesman.

Mrs. J. H. Edwards and daughter, Miss Christine, of East St. Louis, Ill., arrived Monday to visit their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. H. Robinson.

Mrs. J. R. Hull went to Ely, yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. Roy Spiker.

Two great pictures at the Gem tonight. "The Unfortunate Pickpocket" and "Good Medicine." Either one worth the price of admission.

Miss Bessie Montgomery went to Hannibal yesterday to attend the exercises at the convent.

Miss Ella Gentry went to Shelby Monday to visit relatives.

Miss Lena Wunch, returned from Hannibal, Monday, where she had been called by her brother, Ben Wunch's, illness and reported his condition as improved.

Cecil, the 14-year-old son of Granville S. Keller, accidentally shot and killed himself at his home 2½ miles south of Palmyra Monday morning. He had returned home from squirrel hunting and stopped at a water trough to dress his game. He leaned the gun against the trough and in drawing it to him one barrel went off, the load entering the abdomen. He died almost instantly.

A. F. & A. M.

A regular communication of Monroe Lodge No. 64, A. F. & A. M. held last Friday evening. Two candidates were given the E. A. Degree. Two petitions for membership were presented. The Lodge is now in good working order and has plenty of work to do there being nine on the road.

A special communication will be held next Monday evening to raise two candidates to the M. M. Degree.

Notice to Advertisers.

In order to secure the best service we would suggest that our advertisers give us their copy as early as possible. It is almost impossible to give an advertiser good display or good position who sends in his copy late on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Finch.

After an illness of only a few minutes, L. D. Finch died of heart trouble at the home of his grandson, Nube Finch, Tuesday morning. While eating breakfast he complained of a pain in his head and got up and laid on a bed a very short time and expired before a physician, which was hurriedly summoned, could arrive.

He was 86 years old and one of the most highly respected citizens of Saline Township Ralls county.

The funeral will be at DeMoss, at 11 a. m. today and he will be buried with Masonic honors.

A petition was circulated at Hunnewell recently which was signed by all the business men and many others, asking the railroad company to stop the night passengers at that place as after the passenger train passes through there at 2:14 in the afternoon, there is no train that they can go east on until 9:00 the next morning, which is just 19 hours. —Clarence Courier

For Sale.

Two Collie dog pups five months old. —J. D. Brandmeyer. 6-25.

Mrs. Ida Stewart of Paragould, Ark., arrived Tuesday to visit Mesdames M. B. Carson and B. G. Moss.

FOUND—Pair of glasses. Owner can have by proving property and paying for this notice.

Sunday was the birthday of the American flag.

High water during the past week has delayed many of the passenger trains.

Robt. Lear of Shelby has been the guest of his cousin, H. I. Lear.

Talk about wedding presents, Gus Jayne gave Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Wood a 40 lb. shoat.

Mrs. George Foley has been with homefolks at Ely.

Miss Marie Ragland of Paris, is the guest of Monroe relatives.

V. H. Spalding is transacting business in Chicago.

C. F. Young of Denver, Colo., is visiting the homefolks in this city.

Mrs. W. T. Rutledge, was a Bluff City visitor Monday.

Gem Amusement Co. Opera house every night.

Entered into Rest.

Lorenzo D. Finch was born Aug. 3, 1822; died June 16, 1908, age 85 years, 10 months and 13 days.

The deceased was married to Rebecca Zein, May 22, 1847. To them were born two children, both of whom, with the wife preceded him to the home of the saints, having been gone six months and six days. The grand children that remain are: W. L. Finch, Mrs. Maggie Johnson, W. D. Chadwick, Charles Chadwick and Mrs. Estelita Finks and twelve great grand children.

He professed faith in Christ in early life uniting with the Methodist Church and was a consistent Christian man to the end of his earthly pilgrimage.

One rule of his life being to always speak a good word or say nothing at all. He came from Ohio Co., Indiana to Monroe Co., Mo., in 1861, locating six miles south of where Monroe City now stands and with the exception of 3 years spent in the U. S. army during the rebellion, his home was near to Monroe City and about 15 years he had lived in Monroe City. He enlisted in the 30th Regiment of Mo., volunteers Aug. 1, 1862. Served 3 years and was discharged at Columbus, Texas Aug. 21, 1865. His funeral services were held at DeMoss Chapel, conducted by the Society of Free Masons of which he was member. Rev. Laughlin preaching the funeral sermon.

A good man has gone home, he will be missed from among us.

E. M. Sipple was here Saturday from Kirksville where he is doing post graduate work in the State Normal. Mr. Sipple is an applicant for the Superintendency of the Monroe City Public Schools. We have known Mr. Sipple from his boyhood and have always found him to be honest, faithful in the discharge of his duties and a hard working deep student. He is the County Commissioner of Linn County, has been Superintendent of the Laclede school for five years and could have had the position again should he have desired it. He comes with the highest recommendations of the Kirksville Normal and many prominent educators who know of his excellent work. Monroe will be fortunate in securing his service.

The Fight.

There was a street fight at sun set on the 10th inst., in which H. B. Mudd, E. J. Bross and the City Marshal J. W. Stephens were the central figures.

Mr. Bross was charged with resisting an officer. The charge was later compromised to breach of the peace and a fine of $5 which was paid, was brought against Mr. Bross.

It was an unfortunate affair and we are glad it was so arranged and brought to a happy conclusion.

Aaron Boulware and wife gave a family dinner Monday evening in honor of the bridal party, Boulware-Wood, to be. After dinner a large balloon was sent up from the lawn and some one wanted Lamar to make a voyage, but as his angel was on earth he declined.

Mrs. L. J. Stockwell, of Paducah, Ky., has arrived to spend a month with her parents T. J. Sharp and wife.